

The Transforming Power of Living Love

Many books and articles have been written about love and its ability to transform. This article will bring to its readers something new to focus on, as light is shed on the very nature of existence. For love is the substance of whom and what we are. Yes, dear ones, you, right there, are the substance of living love. You are that which emanates from your Source as love manifested. You are that which shares this substance with all things, manifested here on Earth, and throughout the universe and beyond.

Love is that spiritual energy that imbues everything with meaning. This meaning can be summed up in this simple statement. “Behold, I make all things new.” The nature of Source is that which is ‘ever unfolding anew’ and this newness brings order out of chaos, healing over sickness, and joy over sadness. Newness, in all areas of life. These words seemed far removed from the reality that most face on a day to day basis. How can these words be made more ‘user friendly’ there? There is a way and I will tell you.

You see, you have two ways to use your mind. You have the way of separation, which is truly a false use of mind, an impostor there, which has usurped your truth and has claimed it as its own, or you have the mind of joining, the mind of connection to your Source, the mind of your Father/Mother God, your true parent.

Eons of time have instilled the mind of separation and infused it into cultures throughout the Earth, but it is not how we were created to use our minds. Yes, dear ones, mankind made a big mistake as he chose to live life as a ‘do-it yourself’ project. He cut the lifeline to his Source, and as a branch cut from a tree, or a boat set adrift, he has floundered and grasped and come up with all sorts of ideas for making himself secure and steady there. Defenses were installed to ward off fear, hate, sin and guilt, and all the problems of mankind have emanated from this separated mindset, this ego mindset, ever since.

But we have a way out of this most woeful state. You see, as you quiet your thinking, and allow peace to be experienced, you have available a spiritual guide, who loves you and is working with you to awaken you to who and what you really are. I, who was known as Jeshua while I lived on the Earth, am there for you also. I promised way back then, that I would never leave you, and indeed, I have not. My spiritual reality is present there, as you do so ask Me in. But I cannot come to you and guide you without your request. I cannot intrude into your conscious awareness without your permission, there, for your free will is an absolute gift from your Creator, not to be violated there. You must ask, dear one, truly, you must ask.

What will you be given as you do so ask? First, you will realize as you hear from Me, that you are not alone. Yes, we will dialogue together, and you will think, at first, that it is your own thinking that you are hearing, but as you continue on again and again, you will realize that it is your guide or your Voice for Truth there. This alone, will be of such joy and amazement to you, that now you know you are not alone, and that life holds so much more than you had ever dreamed of. “Why didn’t someone tell me?” you ask “Why haven’t I known of this?” Now will come huge waves of releasing of ignorance and the deepest relationship you will ever know will unfold. The fundamental nature of our relationship will be love, living love, and will have your best interest at heart. Guidance will not only benefit you, but will benefit all those you are in contact with.

It will take practice and persistence to overcome and let go of the separated mindset, but there is no greater place to put your energy and your time, dear one. Live joined with Me now, and let the power of living love transform you there, into the truth of whom and what you really are, a child of Source and One with All That Is. In closing, I would offer to you this promise again. I am with you there, and will never leave you. You are not alone, and you are not without true help available for you, always. Turn inward to Me now, find that place of peace, and ask Me in. I will hear and I will answer. I love you and that is the truth of it.

Sharing of this article is encouraged, but please acknowledge the website.Thanks.