

About Attention

Where you give your attention,
Is of utmost importance, dear,
For as you join within to Me,
God's meaning will come clear.

Your attention, your Mind's awareness,
'Tis where co-creation will come through,
You and God, as ONE, dear,
God's Will takes both of you.

A giver and receiver,
You are both, you see.
The One includes the Other,
Both of necessity.

So stand up tall, my dear one,
Your part, of utmost worth,
Your attention and your follow through,
Allows miracles to birth.

You have free will as gift there, '
Choose to attend to Me,
Within, God's love will lead us,
To Divine Reality.

It takes conviction, practice,
To return here constantly,
Yet soon it will be the only place,
Your Mind will want to be.

My attention always there, dear,
I don't spend time away,
I'm here and with you always,
Each moment of each day.

Now's the time to join, dear,
With Me, let your mind attend,
You'll bring love's light into the world,
Fulfillment without end!
