

A Little Encouragement

Just a little encouragement,
Can brighten someone's day,
A kindly word, a simple smile,
Will go a long, long way,

In helping heal one's doldrums,
When joy seem hard to find,
When feelings of aloneness,
Weigh on someone's mind.

Remember that the other,
Your sister, brother there,
Moves with you as Wholeness,
So what you give, you share.

So turn within to Me, dear,
When you, yourself, feel down,
I'll give you My encouragement,
'Twill wipe away your frown.

There's not a single moment,
When you are left alone,
No time that you're abandoned,
I'm there within, well known.

Your bodily discomfort,
Your nagging aches, your pain,
Are healed when living love's unleashed,
With Me, so much, to gain!

Let love fill up your heart, dear,
Flow out to those with care,
You'll live as God intended,
His point of light right there!

I encourage you to do this,
Strongly, do I plead,
Great is the call for love, there,
Many are so in need!

I'll help you as you encounter,
Those longing for God's light,
Where love will do the healing,
Will clear their downcast's sight.

Give words to them from guidance,
Let words come from Me,
For each one's individual,
Needs unique specificity.

In closing I will tell you,
Words specifically for you,
Healing is unfolding, dear,
Love's making all things new.
