

A Call For Listening

I'm asking you to listen,
To quiet ego mind,
To hear the Voice for Truth within,
Your sanity, you'll find.

Each moment of each day, there,
Follow what you hear,
Let Me lead you onward,
This is God's way, my dear.

A mind that's open, peaceful,
Not filled with fret, nor fear,
Will hear the next steps given,
Resounding truth, so clear.

Guidance won't be heard as,
Maybe that or this,
Not filled with hesitation,
Such truth, you won't dismiss.

Forward, without doubt, there,
You'll know your doing right,
Following My guidance,
Increases love's pure light.

Sometimes simple steps we take,
Sometimes leaps and bounds,
As One in God's Great Movement,
The Voice for Truth resounds.

Resounds throughout The Wholeness,
So listening's no small thing,
More than just for you, dear,
Great love to All, you bring.

Keep your mind attuned, dear,
In peace, be there, with Me,
And when you hear the Voice for Truth,
Just follow, willingly.

In closing, I declare to you,
All readers of this poem,
I am with you always,
In love, right here, we're home.
