

Fertile Ground

Sharing the good news of love,
That I'm directly there,
May often be rejected,
Met with "I don't care."

Some say that life with spirit,
No science there, you'll find,
It's just some wishful thinking,
Used by the simple mind.

Yet millions there are hurting,
With fear they're tightly bound.
Unaware true sanity,
Within, with Me, is found.

I offer My love to them,
Tell them they're not alone,
I'll guide them and I'll teach them,
So much they have not known.

I'll let them know they're ONE, there,
That separation cannot be,
They're held in Universal Mind,
As perfect, whole, and free.

I'll tell them love's a power,
God's healing energy,
That as they turn within and ask,
'Twill flow forth mightily.

Here they will be healed, there,
Redeemed, and transformed, too,
For living love God's action,
Serves purpose to renew.

Continue to tell others,
Share what you so well know,
When your words fall on fertile ground,
I'll help these seeds to grow.

Don't give up on mission,
Share your words from Me,
The best use of your time there,
'Twill heal humanity.

In closing, I tell you deeply,
I love you, we are One,
Continue now to plant the seeds,
Full flowering's begun!
