

Vortex of Light

A vortex lives within you,
A field of Holy Light,
It emanates from Source there,
And serves to make things right.

This vortex you may enter,
Turn within to Me,
Choose to let go thinking,
Find peace, tranquility.

This place within, this vortex,
Holds Transcendence view,
Here, we meet together,
God's meaning comes on through.

This meaning's living love, dear,
Its purpose, to renew,
To heal, redeem, transform, there,
It's substantive for you.

We'll shatter all defense, there,
Ego's faulty shield,
You'll know, at last, God's meaning,
To Source, you'll gladly yield,

Yielding to your Maker,
To what God wills for you,
Means opening to Oneness,
To letting love come through.

Now you've found your purpose,
To be God's light, His star,
To awaken All to Oneness,
To whom we really are.

This vortex holds a vision,
A vision of what's to come,
It sees a planet 'wakening,
To God, that we are One.

There is no separation,
No one's left all alone,
All are One dear family,
As One, we are at home!

In closing let Me say, dear,
What you have surely known,
I am with you always,
You are not alone.
