

Always You Are There

Each day, unlike the others,
Has events that occur, so new,
They have a common element,
I share them Lord, with you.

Whatever is unfolding,
What e'er the mystery,
Always, You are there, Lord,
To bring the truth to me.

What appears as complicated,
What seems a snarled mess,
Easily, You simplify,
Gone now, are guilt and stress.

I've had enough experience, Lord,
To turn right away to You,
I waste not even a moment,
Alone to think it through.

My Counselor, and my Guide, Lord,
My Teacher, Healer, too,
You are All to Me, Lord,
And all my love's for You.

In peace, I seek Your Presence,
You answer me in mind,
"I'm here, right now, forever,
As One we're intertwined."

You open up the flood gates,
Living love pours through.
God's meaning now pervades the All,
Transforming, making new.

The power of Co-creation,
'Tis how we're meant to live,
Each one the point of entry,
For God, His love to give.

Transcendancy, our birthright,
Not meant for just a few,
Our Minds are All connected,
And love's what comes on through.

Welcome each new day, dear,
Togetherness, we share,
Joy fills the heart and mind, dear,
And love is everywhere!
