

A Greater Context

Each life is never solo,
With others it is bound,
Always interconnected,
It impacts all around.

Remember as you live there,
To live through the lens of love,
You live in a greater context,
E'en more than you know of!

The contextual implications,
The circumstances that you see,
Means life impacts all others,
'Tis not just 'I' but 'we.'

I'll guide you and make known there,
The steps that you should take,
That will benefit the Wholeness,
There's more than you at stake!

When My time on earth was over,
The context included those,
Who saw Me resurrected,
Life with Me, they chose.

I promised them I'd be there,
Through all eternity,
Indwelt in each one's mind and heart,
Right now, I'm there, with thee.

We're interrelated, dear one,
God's children, inherently,
Brothers, sisters, One and All,
The context— family!

In closing, let Me share again,
The truth that you have known,
I am with you always,
You are not alone!
