

Whatever You Are Facing

Whatever you are facing,
That causes you unrest,
We'll join as One together,
For the outcome that is best.

You may have made an error,
Forgetting how to care,
Causing someone hardship,
Now anger fills the air.

You meant not to cause an offense,
But feelings fired strong,
And now this one wants nothing more,
Then for you to know you're wrong!

Treat this one with kindness,
Look for a chance to say.
That you are truly sorry,
Forgiveness asked, God's way.

This one may need some distance,
Some time to let it go,
So let it unfold naturally,
With Me, dear one, go slow.

Love is the greatest healer,
So let living love renew,
Its power will find the answer,
For healing to come through.

Let's look on what has happened,
As a learning to be kind,
Love must be the forefront,
Joined with Me in mind.

This one who's like a brother,
I love equally as you,
Let's remember always,
God's Oneness is what's true.

In closing, I embrace you,
No distance can there be,
For we are One forever,
Bound eternally!
