

Because We're One

Do you have a funny bone,
Does laughter pour from you,
When not put forth from ego,
I find things funny, too.

Humor is just one thing,
That I share with you,
I'm with you through it all, dear,
Because we're One, it's true.

You may say there are some things,
Alone, you want to do,
Remember I'm not judging,
I'm here, as help, for you.

If you lose discernment,
Cause harm, and hurt, and ache,
Ask and I will guide you,
You'll learn from your mistake.

Even in the little things,
That seem so very small,
Let's decide together,
I'll answer to your call.

Never am I too busy,
In spirit, time's not there,
Everywhere and always,
As One, all things, we share.

In laughter and in tears, dear,
Through each moment of each day,
I'm there to share in Oneness,
And Love will light our way.

In closing, let us end this poem,
By telling readers there,
You're with us here as family,
Precious beyond compare!
