

Witness to My Presence

I'm seeing many people there,
Who are suffering needlessly,
They see their life as empty,
So unaware of Me.

Unaware that right within,
They have the dearest friend,
They only need to call My Name,
I'll love them without end.

No longer will life be empty,
As I open up love's door,
It brings about renewal,
Such joy, for them, in store!

I'm asking you who know Me,
To speak most honestly,
To witness to My Presence,
To My reality.

Don't let the ego tell you,
You'll alienate people there,
Your words will land on fertile ground,
Fruits of love they'll bear.

When opportunity arises,
Turn within to hear,
Words meant for the one before you,
Witness there, my dear.

Just speak what you've experienced,
Tell most honestly,
This is how we wake the world,
To its true identity.

Witness to My Presence,
Tell them about you and Me,
How your loneliness is gone now,
We're together, joyfully.

In closing, let Me tell you,
I love you, deeply care,
You are God's point of light dear,
Shining bright, right there!
