

True Religion

Religions of the world,
Serve a function there,
They point the way to living love,
God's meaning's what they share.

Some emphasize good works there,
Some say faith alone's what counts,
To pave the way to heaven.
Sin, they all denounce.

Those that follow Me, there,
Those who know Me well,
Are not filled with doctrine,
Recite no creeds, nor dwell,

On judging other people,
Whether right or wrong,
They find the truth within, there,
With Me they do belong.

They know that our relationship,
Opens up each mind,
To live from the Transcendent,
Here truth, alone, they find.

You need no arched cathedral,
Nor village church with bells,
Your sanctuary of truth, dear,
Within your mind it dwells.

Here we join together,
When you have found your peace,
Communion with each other,
All tumult now will cease.

We open up to Oneness,
Our Source fills everything,
Living love our meaning,
With Joy, our hearts do sing.

We sing of our completeness,
Perfect, whole, and free,
Held in Universal Mind,
God's will our destiny.

Find your true religion,
As you join with Me,
Here is God's fulfillment,
It's how you meant to be!
