

Hard To Say Goodbye

Many days and weeks now,
No words, on site, from Paul,
A message from Raj is looked for,
But no words come at all.

Lord, has Paul given up now?
I know there's financial strain,
Has his situation,
Caused him too much pain?

Sadness fills my heart, Lord,
Have now, his gifts, been given?
So many years of sharing truth,
With integrity, he's striven.

There may be still a few more posts,
Is the end of posting here?
My heart wells up with sadness,
Paul, you've been so dear!

You listened and then shared with us,
What Raj would have us know,
It's love that is the reason,
The words, through you, did flow.

You helped me understand so much,
Most importantly, I too,
Can hear the Voice for Truth within,
And bring His words on through.

You cleared a misconception,
My falsely held belief,
That I lived alone as separate,
Now joined with Source—relief!

I'm growing old now, too, Lord,
Someday, will come, my time,
To say goodbye to earthly life,
And join All that's sublime.

Let me know the time, Lord,
When my journey here will end,
For now I 'll continue writing,
With love, these poems, I send.

Letting go's a process,
It hard to say good bye,
Joy is mixed with sadness,
And love's the reason why.

Thank you Paul and family,
For shedding light so true,
Your gifts so freely given,
I send my love to you.
