

You'll Know for Certain

Can you accept the premise,
That this woman hears My Voice?
Or do you think it's all made up,
A fabricated choice?

Is it just too much to swallow,
That Jesus' Voice is true?
She asked Me for life's meaning,
In mind, My Voice came through.

She chose Me and I chose her,
Following God's will,
Together we give out this gift,
Her mission to fulfill.

You, too, will hear My Voice there,
I'm here for everyone,
To love you and to guide you,
Each daughter and each son.

So if you're plagued by doubts there,
Your doubts will disappear,
As you join and ask Me in,
And, My Voice, you hear.

You'll come to know for certain,
You'll deeply comprehend,
Within is perfect guidance,
And love that knows no end.

You'll get to know Me well there,
No stranger will I be,
As close as your next breath, dear,
Entwined as One are we.

So please suspend your judgement,
Give your doubt a rest,
Instead, ask for My Presence,
With Me, you'll soon be blest.

We'll joy in life together,
No longer all alone,
Always, I am there, dear,
The best friend ever known.

09/21/23. Given from Jesus. Sharing is encouraged, and thank you for telling others about this website.