

At This Holy Moment

Today dawns forth the Sabbath,
And people everywhere,
Are heading to their churches,
The word of God to share.

This weekly celebration,
'Tis not the only day,
That words from the Transcendent,
Can, in your Mind, make way.

At any holy moment,
The Voice for Truth comes through,
The doors of love wide open,
Your asking, yields what's true.

It's you who claims My Presence,
I'm here at any time,
To guide you with God's living love,
Transcendent words, sublime.

Right now can be the time, dear,
My urging, don't dismiss,
At this holy moment,
Let's join in holy bliss.

I'll help you in your life, dear,
I see what blocks your way,
How ego deals the cards there,
His sabotaging play.

We'll clear misunderstandings,
The mind view held apart,
We'll heal the separation,
As One, a brand new start!

So at this holy moment,
It's you I'm waiting for,
This poem's an invitation,
Come through My open door.

In closing let Me share again,
These words so now well known,
I am with you always,
You are not alone.
