

Certain Love Forever

There is no ambiguity
When turning within to Me,
No if's or but's or maybe's,
I'm there with certainty.

My Presence's not wishful thinking,
Not imagination's trick,
My Voice is not an echo,
You're not insane, nor sick.

What you hear is Me, dear,
My Spiritual Presence, there,
The Resurrected Jesus,
Within for all to share.

We move as One together,
God's meaning there as you,
Living love's the reason,
That I, in mind, come through.

Not in a fleeting moment,
Not here, then out of sight,
My Presence is forever,
Within, love's glowing light.

Asking is necessary,
For Me to be with you,
Free will is your birthright,
You choose for what is true.

It's in the ongoing experience,
As you get to know Me well,
Your doubts will disappear, dear,
With certain love, you'll dwell.

Trust in our communion,
No better place to be,
Our certain love forever,
No ambiguity.

In closing let Me tell you,
Again what you have known,
I am with you always,
You are not alone.
