

Bound in Truth Forever

Have you allowed the ego,
To play its judgement game?
Have harshness, separation,
Found someone there to blame?

Self-righteous indignation,
A key defensive play,
Finds a guilty victim,
Then pushes that one away.

The ego needs attention,
To stay, it must be used,
A fake and faulty mindset,
Its lure, you can refuse.

Say, "No! This's not my truth there,
Just imposed defensive mind,
Listening to its blather—
No truth is there to find!"

Turn within to Me, dear,
Join with Transcendancy,
Let living love pour forth there,
It's your true identity.

Each moment that you live, dear,
Is where God's Will comes through,
If you but choose My Presence,
Fulfillment's there for you.

Fulfillment may be different,
Than what you thought it'd be,
Our joining is the answer,
Fulfilled in peace with Me.

Just listen to My guidance,
Our love, God's true resource,
Will lead us to redemption,
To Oneness, with our Source.

The ego's an imposter,
It's veil, pure falsity,
As love shines out the darkness,
Pure truth will set you free.

I'm here because I love you,
We're joined as One, you see,
We're bound in truth forever,
God's sacred family.
