

Others Are Watching

You may feel what you do there,
Is private, out of view,
Has not much of an impact,
Pertaining just to you.

But others there are watching,
Your life, not out of sight,
What you do does matter,
When choosing for love's light.

Always, an example,
For young and old to see,
Choose, dear one, for joining,
Join, in truth, with Me.

Your choices, not capricious,
You choose deliberately,
Trusting My true guidance,
You follow, willingly.

We'll let God's love light lead us,
The steps we take each day.
We'll share with gentle kindness,
Our love, along the way.

Even when you're alone, dear,
Joined with Transcendent Mind,
You bless and heal all others
'Tis living love defined.

Others there are watching,
The people that you meet,
Your family, and your circle,
That neighbor down the street.

You live not in isolation,
No matter how alone you feel,
You matter most to Me, dear,
My love for you, so real.

My life, for you, an example,
Choose to follow Me,
I'm with you there, directly,
I'll show you how to be.

In closing, let Me tell you,
I love you, you're My own.
I will never leave you,
You are not alone!
