

To End the War

Life goes on as usual,
For us, we live in peace,
Yet in Israel and Gaza,
The fighting does not cease.

We see the slaughter on both sides.
The death, destruction there,
Horrified, yet helpless,
Our hearts fill with despair.

No matter what religion,
These are our spiritual kin,
How can we stop the carnage,
Lord, where should we begin?

Since Minds are all connected,
Vision a world in peace,
Vision bombs and tanks are gone,
That conflict there has ceased.

Vision that the leaders,
Those who rule with hate,
Have Transformed Minds now open,
To let the war abate.

In Mind, send forth the power of love,
Its power greater than fear,
'Twill bring this war to closure,
The stoppage will appear.

These words contain the answer,
The part that you should play,
Send forth the power of living love,
Will end the war, God's way!

Will bring these people together,
To share the Holy Land,
Begin the vast rebuilding,
With Love, the Great Command.

Love, Our Source's meaning,
Has power beyond compare,
Send it forth right now, dear,
For healing, vast repair.

In closing I am with you,
Let's join God's mighty force,
An army built in peace there,
With Love, its healing source!

t