

Intrinsic Value

You have intrinsic value,
Not based on what you've done,
Inherent in your being,
Because with God you're One.

Do not feel incidental,
As just another face,
You're priceless to your Maker,
His jewel, of brilliant grace!

Not separate to be judged there,
Nor held out at arm's length,
God's bound with you in Oneness,
Pours forth His love, His strength.

When others have forgotten,
You're left as one aside,
Turn your mind to Me, dear,
My arms are open wide.

Don't wallow in self pity,
No call for feeling low,
I hold you there as family,
My love, so well, you know.

Try reaching out to others,
Put forth your love, your joy,
'Twill be a certain antidote,
To ego's caustic ploy.

Loneliness will cease there,
As love sets all things right,
Gone is all unworthiness,
You're perfect in God's sight.

So raise you eyes to mine, dear,
Let love's light lead the way,
Together, we'll move forward.
In joy, as One, each day.

You have intrinsic value,
You're vital there to Me,
I will love you always,
We're joined, eternally.
