

You Need to Know

*You need to know I love you,
That you are not alone,
That I am here to guide you,
To a place that you've not known.*

*A place within your mind, dear,
God's quiet sanctuary,
Where Universal Mind joins yours,
In One Transcendancy.*

*Here we can join together,
When you have asked Me in,
Our relationship of truth, dear,
Can finally begin!*

*Here is the place to live from,
For love will lead our way,
Love's function is renewal,
Its 'rightness' felt each day.*

*I urge you, I implore you,
To turn within to Me,
Choose for this way of life, dear,
Your true reality.*

*I'm not off in the ethers,
No, not far away,
I'm bound with you right now, dear,
Find Me here, this day.*

*We'll move through life together,
Find joy and peace divine,
You'll know My loving Presence,
Our Oneness so sublime.*

*You need to know God's with you,
He never left His own,
And so I tell you always
You are not alone!*
