

Ever Unfolding Anew

Your life unfolds anew there,
Held perfect, whole, and free,
God's love fulfills its function,
Transforming, constantly.

This love itself is constant,
Within, throughout the All,
Healing and redeeming,
'Twill answer to your call.

Love is your very meaning,
I'm there within to pour,
To bathe you in Loves's cleansing,
Renewing and much more.

Love releases stasis,
Now zest for life is there,
We trust in life's unfolding,
Held safely in God's care.

Joining is essential,
In Mind, come home to Me,
A separated mindset,
Leaves out Transcendancy.

Love's power to 'make right' there,
Power beyond words—it's true,
Could move a mighty mountain,
Could change the world's view!

Let's now restate our mission,
God's Love's our guiding star,
To awaken All to Oneness,
To whom you really are.

Each one must come to know there,
His true identity,
Must let go of illusion,
His truth he'll clearly see.

Call on Me to guide you,
I'll lead you through the fray,
Ego's defense will fade there—
Like ice, 'twill melt away.

At last, you'll know most fully,
No more, you'll need to roam,
You've found just who you are, dear,
As One, with God, your home.
