

A New Beginning

Each day's a new beginning,
A fresh start can be made,
Yesterday is gone now,
It's history's been laid.

How should you hold your mind, there,
When starting fresh this day?
What intention do you have,
What choice comes into play?

Choose to join with Me, dear,
In mind, I'll join with you,
Begin with our togetherness,
I'll guide you to what's true.

Your day will go so smoothly,
And joy will set the tone,
Knowing I am with you—
That you are not alone.

As we live together,
You are consciously aware,
Each moment is a new one,
Bright and hopeful, there.

The light of living love shines,
And points to us the way,
We follow what is given,
God's meaning for this day.

Each day is like no other,
It harbors what's to come,
Birthing God's fulfillment,
It's where our peace comes from.

A new beginning means a choice,
That you must make for Me,
Remembering I am with you,
No longer 'I' but 'We.'

We move as One together,
The One includes the All,
Fulfilling God's true meaning,
Answering His call.

In closing, I will tell you,
I'm right here now, it's true,
Each day's a new beginning,
Filled, with Love, for you.
