

Witness To My Presence

I'm calling you to witness,
To what you know is true,
To tell the world about Me,
That within, I come on through.

To tell those that you meet, dear,
They travel not alone,
Accompanied by Jesus,
True love for each is shown.

Don't fear that you'll be labelled,
A 'Jesus freak' or more,
That you'll be disregarded,
As someone to ignore.

Stay joined with pure intention,
To share what's coming through,
I'll be right there to guide your words,
For each one, fresh and new.

Won't be a practiced message,
The words that come on through,
Will be what's needed perfectly,
For that heart to ring true.

This is what is called for,
Bring forth love's shining light.
Tell the world about Me,
Help heal earth's blinded sight.

Not in the distant future,
Or sometime later, dear,
Now's the time that matters,
Witness to what you hear.

So as you meet with others,
This day specifically,
Witness to My Presence,
Voice the Truth of Me!
