

Make a Firm Commitment

Make a firm commitment,
Use well your own free will,
To be a constant listener,
Life's purpose to fulfill.

Quiet the distractions,
The ego's jumping mind,
Find peace then ask Me in, dear,
Transcendancy you'll find.

I'll be there in the quiet,
The Voice for Truth you'll hear,
Perfect love unfolding,
God's way for you made clear.

You must decide to listen,
Don't neglect this vital part,
You open up love's door, dear,
When asking from your heart.

The cacophony of ego,
Its intrusions, haughty spiel,
Will portray itself as who you are,
Says, 'that spiritual stuff's unreal.'

Disregard this defense mind,
Made up because of fear,
Let peace and quiet fill that space,
Our Holy Place, my dear.

We'll joy in our togetherness,
Life's purpose here now found,
To be God's point of light and love,
As One in truth we're bound.

So as you read this poem, dear,
Make your commitment true,
To live life joined as One with Source,
I'm here dear, loving you!
