

Just Ask and Call My Name

Each message brings a promise,
Each poem brings forth the same,
That I am always with you,
Just ask and call My Name.

I repeat this for a reason,
You'll know where I am found,
That I'm not far away from you,
Within, as One, we're bound.

Our relationship's so vital,
I'll illuminate your way,
You'll open to God's living love,
Find joy with Me each day.

Each step will be a joined one,
Futility felt no more,
Each step will open to us,
What God has in store.

We know that living love, there,
Will lead and light our way,
This love's God's very meaning,
Renews us every day.

Repetition's necessary,
A thousand times I'll say,
You are My beloved,
Turn to Me, this day.

I'm where Transcendence opens,
How you're meant to use your mind,
Joined as One forever,
True peace, true love, you'll find.

In closing, I well tell you,
I repeat again what's known,
I am with you always,
You are not alone.
