

A Place to Live in Grace

A move's on the horizon,
Soon you'll leave this place,
You'll find another home there,
A place to live in grace.

I've said to sell your home, dear,
The time to move is soon,
Time is of the essence,
For mission's fullest bloom.

Your energy will shift there,
New vistas you will see,
We'll make this move together,
With peace and harmony.

The last chapter of your life, dear,
Will be a joyous one,
The mission started long ago,
Will gloriously be done.

Life's burdens and complexity,
Are gone, you'll feel release,
With simplicity in living,
You'll feel the deepest peace.

We have a lot to do there,
I'm here inside, just ask,
I'll lead you and will guide you,
Bring wisdom to each task.

Soon the house will sell, dear,
A new home you will find,
Just perfect for your life there,
With mission first in mind.

In closing of this little poem,
Readers, I'm with you, too,
Whatever is unfolding,
I'll be there loving you.

My love is there unbounded,
As you so well have known,
I am with you always,
You are not alone.
