

A Mighty Gifting

Your life's a great unfolding,
Each day it opens more,
To what God will's for you, dear,
To what He has in store.

A mighty gifting's waiting,
'Twill mean so much to you,
To know your work is valued,
Fills minds with what is true.

The works that you've put forth there,
The words put forth from Me,
Like seeds upon the fertile ground,
Will grow most furtively.

You may not be around then.
You will have left this plane,
But long after you've departed,
The books and poems remain.

They'll serve to light the way, dear,
They point the way within,
For others to discover Me,
Our joining can begin.

Directly I'm available,
Not in a far off place,
Just ask and I will answer,
You're met with love and grace.

We've done this now for years, dear,
The message stays so true,
That I'm directly here inside,
Your Best Friend coming through.

The last chapter of your life, dear,
You'll be no more obscure,
I'll be right there beside you,
Held with My love secure.

We'll face each day together,
Let living love pour through,
You'll have the strength to carry on,
Until your time is through.

In closing let Me tell you,
What you so well have known,
I love you, hold you, dearly,
You are not alone.
