

Why These Poems

They're like a conversation,
That we both can share,
Not heavy duty reading,
Words of caring, there.

Each has a sacred purpose,
A message to impart,
They're meant to bring an insight,
Perhaps to warm your heart.

They have a certain rhythm,
A certain rhyme and gait,
Which slows the way you read them,
It's penetration's rate.

They're meant to be read slowly,
Perhaps, a second time,
For you to feel the meaning,
Encaptured in each rhyme.

The poems contain one message,
Though varied they may be,
I tell you in a hundred ways,
I'm here, please join with Me.

Each one's an invitation,
A request and a plea,
To find the truth of who you are,
Your true identity!

Through many different channels,
I'm reaching out to you,
The messages, books, and poems here,
Are My words coming through.

I ask you, no implore you,
To find your peace within,
Then open to My guidance,
I'm here – let truth begin!

Love's the very reason,
This poetry, I write,
I'm with you and I love you,
We're bound as One True Light.
