

A Call for Unity

Can a fractured nation heal?
Is there a way to mend?
Is there a certain pathway,
That leads us to this end?

There is a need for unity,
Releasing fear and blame,
Embracing our diversity,
Yet knowing we're the same.

We have the same inheritance,
It's given to us all.
The gift of living love within,
God's meaning meets the call.

Each one who opens to it,
Each daughter and each son,
Will find that healing's given,
Will find they move as One.

Embracing now this Oneness,
No separation's there,
Differences dissolve now,
What's left is love to share.

Each one can make a difference,
Help heal the great divide,
By asking for My Presence,
Division will subside.

No schism is too great for love,
No hatred trumps its power,
It is the great uniter,
Peace for all, will flower.

I make this call for unity,
To you I know so well.
We must let others know there,
That right within, I dwell.

Tell them that you know Me,
That truth is there inside,
Waiting for each one there,
With each, I will abide.

The love you know from Me, dear,
An example they will see,
You'll shine it out to others,
God's point of light you'll be.

I see a future bright there,
A people joined as One,
We'll share in jubilation,
Awakening will be done!

In closing let Me tell you,
What you have surely known,
I am with you always,
You are not alone.
