

A Radical Proposition

I'm interested in giving you,
A brand new way to live,
Radical in its outcome,
Correction will it give.

Radical, far reaching,
It opens up the door,
For Transcendence's penetration,
For what God has in store!

Correction of the old, dear,
The faulty use of mind,
Which dwells in separation,
Here defenses keep you blind.

I'm asking you to join Me,
Together, we'll erase,
The faulty supposition,
That fear's what runs the race.

Fear is the great intruder,
Its ego's sure lynchpin,
When fear's erased by love, dear,
Transformation will begin.

Love, the mighty healer,
It redeems, makes all things right,
God's meaning for creation,
Transforms, with brilliant light.

A proposition and request,
To quiet thinking mind,
There, in peace, I'm waiting,
True friendship's what you'll find.

A radical proposition,
I offer Myself to you,
The antidote for errors,
Love heals, makes all things new.

In closing, let Me share again,
The truth so now well known,
I am with you always,
You are not alone.
