

Knit Together Well

The strands of love are woven,
Knit together well,
Making up just who we are,
God's meaning they do tell.

They tell of our Creator,
His Oneness they extol,
Renewing and redeeming,
Making Whole the goal.

This love is there within us,
It's where its always been,
The door to love is waiting,
If you but ask Me in.

It comes when joined with spirit,
Let ego mind subside,
Then love with all its goodness,
With us, it will abide.

This love it serves to heal there,
Making all things right,
God's meaning is in Wholeness,
Our Oneness, His delight.

Think not that you're left out there,
This could never be,
'Twould mean God Himself 's apart there,
An impossibility!

Just quiet ego's thinking,
Find peace within your mind,
Then ask that I will join you,
True love with Me you'll find.

Love's threads are knit together,
Severed they cannot be,
Intertwined as One inextricably,
Find love and joy with Me!
