

The Climate of Completion

The climate that surrounds us,
When we are joined as One,
Feels like perpetual springtime,
Embraced by morning sun.

The feeling of completion,
With You is what I know,
Emptiness, now gone there,
Complete, with joy, we go.

You fill my very being,
And all that surrounds me,
With light and love, celestial,
My tears, with joy, run free.

Yet still, I feel so grounded,
No cares that I might fall,
I stand on firm foundation,
God's Oneness holds us All.

If you are feeling empty,
Lost, alone, and blue,
There's One inside who's ready,
Who wants to join with you.

Your Guide, your Friend, your Helper,
He'll meet you, warm the cold,
He'll fill you up, make Whole there,
Release depression's hold.

Just go within, find peace, there,
And ask that He come in,
He'll let you know He's present,
With Him, life can begin.

The climate of completion,
Means now you're not alone,
And living love will heal you,
God's meaning for His own.

I am the One who'll join you,
Yes, it's Jesus, here,
My hand's outstretched to reach you,
You are My Own, so dear.
