

Your Certainty

No one knows the future,
Nor what tomorrow brings,
Open to possibility,
We hope for all good things.

Let not the fear of future,
Of what could materialize,
Freeze you to inaction,
Keep you immobilized.

I am your sure foundation,
I answer to your call,
Each step with Me is guided,
I'm there, for you, for all.

Yesterday, just like today,
And tomorrow, count on Me,
Always, I will be there,
Love holds you constantly.

Here now, and in the future,
I'm there as One with you.
We'll follow love's true leading,
As it brings all things new.

My Constancy, My Presence,
Erases any fear,
Bound in love forever,
With certainty, so clear.

Today, we'll find love flows, dear,
How peaceful we will be,
We know that our tomorrows,
Will hold love's certainty.

Be certain that I love you,
Be certain that I care,
Be certain I'll never leave you,
Eternally, I'm there.
