

Sharing the Vision

I plant in you the vision,
And now we both can see,
The marvelous unfolding,
What God intends to be.

Your lens becomes now clearer,
No longer held obscure,
The picture that was hidden,
Now is bright and pure.

Here now, a new beginning,
All's falling into place,
Each step we're that much closer,
Each step we're held in grace.

Let's joy in each full moment,
As One we move along,
Smiling while we're singing,
Love's new, yet ancient song.

The vision that I give you,
Fulfills your destiny,
So let's move steadily onward,
Your gift to give through Me.

I see a mighty gifting,
I see transcendence 's star,
I see your life fulfilled dear,
Fulfilled, just as you are.

This poem has one conclusion,
That you and I are One,
Bound in truth forever,
Our love is never done.
