

A Thank You to Our Readers

I want to thank you readers,
For coming to our site,
For finding what is given,
Provides a steady light.

We're doing it for you, there,
Each one, a value true,
So worthy of attention,
This mission is for you!

The scribe just listens to Me,
From Me, she writes and knows,
That what comes forth is from Me,
Without Me, nothing flows.

A message that is given,
Is not complete until,
It's been received by you, there,
Accepted with free will.

A 'thank you' that's extended,
Is not a platitude,
It's heartfelt, meant sincerely,
You have My certitude.

In all that has been written,
One thing you now have known,
I am always with you,
I love you as My Own.

God's Will is our intention,
As ego's veil is shed,
Awakening All to Oneness,
By living love we're led.

God's light of love will lead us.
His meaning shows the way,
Healing and transforming,
Invite Me in, this day!

The scribe has made commitment,
To write just what I say,
Her heart is filled with 'thank you's,'
For coming here each day.

In closing of this poem, dear,
I restate once again,
I am waiting for you,
Right now, please come, within.
