

Stay With Me

Stay with Me this moment,
Don't let your focus go,
Don't let ego's intrusion,
Dominate love's flow.

Again and again, return, dear,
Disclaim ego's defense,
Let peace be felt as present,
It's field of being's sense.

Yes, it does take practice,
To let go ego's spew,
Practice does make perfect,
An adage — worthy, true.

Not hard, but commitment's called for,
You must want to join with Me,
Not whimsical, nor half-hearted,
Your intention, firm, must be.

It's truly worth the effort,
Authenticity you'll find,
When joined with Me in Wholeness,
You've joined Transcendent Mind.

Here you'll find your truth, dear,
In relationship sublime,
Here's your firm foundation,
Rock-solid for all time.

You'll know your bound with God, there,
Intertwined—with love, the strands,
You're woven of this love, dear,
God's energetic bands.

I'm standing at love's gate, dear,
I'll open up the stream,
Love washes clean all error,
'Twill heal, renew, redeem.

Let go of separation,
Stay firmly joined with Me,
In joy, we'll let love lead us,
God's Will, our destiny.

In closing, come to Me, right now,
Stay focussed 'til Mind's clear.
Now's the perfect time to join,
With love—I'm waiting here!
