

A Call to Action

Let's not embrace the status quo,
Assuming it's the best,
Let's work for what is better,
Pursue a noble quest.

There's room for much improvement,
God's love will lead the way,
Its light will move us forward,
Into a brand new day.

You're ready for the challenge,
You've heard God's mighty call,
To awaken All to Oneness,
The One includes the All.

You're up against a mindset,
Believing it is real,
That it's really you, there,
'Defending' is its spiel.

This separated mindset,
This ego that has spun,
A web that covers truth, there,
Is easily undone.

Just turn within to Me, dear,
And ask that I show you,
The glorious Mind of Source within,
Perpetually shining through.

It shines with living love there,
God's meaning that you are,
Now ego's web is broken.
Behold, you are God's star!

You're held in Universal Mind,
As perfect, whole, and free,
Living love's your substance,
Dynamic energy.

The status quo, the stasis,
No longer has appeal,
Dynamic love has entered,
God's Movement felt so real!

You are God's point of light there,
God's love moves on through you,
Healing and redeeming,
Making all things new.

This poem is given to you,
To rouse you from your sleep,
So we can 'waken others,
Our destiny to keep.

In closing let Me tell you,
What you have surely known
I am with you always,
You are not alone.
