

Seek and You will Find

The One that you are seeking,
The One you're looking for,
Is truly not far from you,
He's waiting at the door.

I'm at your inner threshold,
I'm by this sacred door,
Listening for your knocking,
Your asking, "Is there more?"

*"Is someone there within me,
A guide, a caring friend?
Someone who'll never leave me,
On which I can depend?"*

*"Alone, my life is 'iffy,' Randomness is there,
Treachery could happen,
And fear leads to despair."*

*"I yearn for a companion,
I'm tired of separateness,
I'm seeking, Lord, please find me,
Free me from my distress."*

I know your seeking there, dear,
Your willingness, I see,
Gladly, the door, I open,
At last, you're here with Me!

You've found the Friend that loves you,
I'm here to guide you, too,
Right now, just rest in peace, there,
Let My love nourish you.

We'll get to other matters,
But first let us rejoice,
You've found Me right within there,
You've heard, at last, My Voice!

Our journey can begin now,
A journey without end,
Living Love will lead us,
All fractures, it will mend.

To you who read this poem, now,
To you who seek for more,
Knock and call My Name there,
I'll open up the door.

You'll know God's meaning for you,
The truth at last you've found,
That God moves as a Oneness,
In Living Love we're bound.

In closing let Me say there,
What you have truly known,
I am with you always,
You are not alone.
