

All Will Be Accomplished

When your life is over,
When your last breath is through,
We'll look back at how it went,
We'll share your life review.

You'll know that you are loved, dear,
You'll not be judged, nor scorned,
You'll see your life as beautiful,
With joy you were adorned.

You'll also see the pain you caused,
You'll feel a deep regret,
When you abandoned loved ones,
Your promises unkept.

The lessons that you learned on earth,
What you accomplished there,
Will serve you well for next time,
Will help you to prepare.

In counsel with your guides there,
You'll make another choice,
Of how you'll serve God's purpose,
Will lend your willing voice.

The mission that you choose dear,
To tell others about Me,
That I'm directly available,
You'll do that, willingly.

The grand and eternal outlook,
We're working to instill,
That all are God's dear children.
Sent forth to do His will.

All will be accomplished,
All will know what's true,
*That love's the very meaning,
God manifests through you.*

Let love light up your way there,
Each day I'll show you how,
To bring this love to others,
Join with Me here and now.

In closing let Me tell you,
I love you faithfully,
I will never leave you,
Entwined, as One, are we.
