

Today I Bring A Blessing

Today I bring a blessing,
To All who read this poem,
I hold my arms in outreach,
Invite you here, back home.

You've felt My very Presence,
You've heard My Voice, each day.
You've ask Me to be with you,
To guide you there, God's way.

You've found when joined together,
Each day unfolds with peace,
Nothing could be better,
Now cares and worries cease.

You've found your sure foundation,
Your true identity,
You know you issue forth from Source,
From God's transcendency.

This blessing that I give you,
Is meant for you to hear,
Is meant to shed real meaning,
To penetrate, make clear,

That I will never leave you,
Beyond the grave, earth's sight,
Now and for forever,
We move as One Great Light.

Death is just a marker,
Ends physicality,
Your life continues onward,
Your spirit now is free.

I will not leave you stranded,
Alone without Me, there.
I love you, bound within you,
As One, our joy, we share.

I bless you now this hour,
For sharing life with Me,
For living as One together,
In peace and ecstasy!

This poem must include gratitude,
My 'thank you' I impart,
For opening up to Me, dear,
Each day, a brand new start.

I'll end this poem quiet simply.

As I have done before,
I love you now and always,
Alone, you are, no more.
