

Not One Regret

Lord, thank you for your Presence,
For taking steps with me,
For being with me, always,
I feel such love for Thee.

You've pulled me through some tough times,
Such errors I have done,
You've pulled me from the mire,
Then hugged this muddy one.

Your love has meant so much, Lord
How empty life would be.
You're more than just a friend, Lord,
You're life, itself, to me.

We've taken on this mission, Lord,
And I bear witness, true,
To tell others that you're with them,
Directly there, are you.

I write words from you daily,
We post them on the site,
It's you and I together,
You tell me, and I write.

It's been a life with purpose,
Not one regret have I,
My joy is being with you,
Lord, with love, I cry.

These tears are from the heart, Lord,
I weep because I know,
What we're telling others,
Will heal the lonely soul.

Tears and smiles mixed, Lord,
You bring them all to Me,
Thank you for what you've given,
I give myself to Thee.
