

Never Displaced

You're held secure with Me, dear,
You'll never be displaced,
I'm with you now and always,
Held with Love, God's grace.

You'll never be a 'has been',
Once vital, but no more,
Your aging makes no difference,
It's you, now, I adore.

Others may dismiss you,
As relevant to the past,
My view, it changes not, dear,
Forever, it will last.

To be the place of Love, dear,
Right there just where you are,
Is truly your great mission,
To be God's shining star.

Let not ego bluff you,
It feeds your discontent,
Telling you you're worthless,
Your good years have been spent.

Dismiss this mindless chatter,
Hold on to what is true,
You're valued beyond measure,
As One With All are you.

You're not 'put out to pasture',
Just someone to be fed,
By being there just who you are,
Your Love, your Light, is shed.

Displaced, replaced, no never,
Your place is here with Me,
A place to call your home, dear,
Your sacred residency.
