

Answer to the Carnage

Two factions are at war now,
As they have been before,
Claiming their ancestral right,
To land, and so much more.

The world looks on in horror,
As bombs and missile flair,
The death toll rises daily,
Destruction's everywhere.

Each faction claims God's with them,
That He has taken sides,
That God wants only one to win.
With their side, He abides.

But God knows not of war there,
Each one His love has known,
All dwellers of this Holy Land,
Are equally, His Own.

God's answer to the carnage,
Is found in heart and mind,
Here living love transforms all,
Brings Peace and ties that bind.

Hold fast, the Oneness of this land,
Bring living love to bear,
And trust that God's true meaning,
Will heal division there.

Nothing is impossible,
I tell you this is true,
Even hardened hatred,
Will melt, as love pours through.

Let's call for war to end now,
Find compromise for all,
There is a way for all to live,
To answer to God's call.

This globe that we reside on,
Was given for all to share,
We move, with God, as One Great Light,
His love will get us there!
