

♥ Words from Mom ♥

Mom's speaking to us from heaven,
Where she has now returned,
Welcomed there so warmly,
With Jesus, she's sojourned.

They laugh and cry together,
Her life review she shares,
He's there right with her through it all.
He loves her — deeply cares.

Those of us who love her,
We'll miss her gentle ways,
She taught us all of Jesus,
Now in our hearts He stays.

You helped us become who we are,
By letting us be free,
The ties that bind were easy, Mom,
No harsh conformity.

We cannot know the bliss you have,
But someday when it's time,
We, too, will know the rapture,
God's heavenly state sublime.

You taught us all of Jesus,
He now is our best friend,
This greatest gift you gave us,
This blessing has no end.

*Randi, since we're speaking,
And clearly, you can hear,
I see your call, your mission,
Hold fast to it, my dear.*

*I see now from this viewpoint,
How helpful it will be,
Stay true to what He gives you,
You'll help humanity.*

*Tell the kids, I love them,
Precious jewels they are,
Each one a blessing to the world,
Each one a light, God's star.*

*Now go about your lives, dears,
Do not dwell on me,
Love the ones right with you,
My life there's history.*

*In closing, one last thing I'll share,
I'll remind you what is true,
Jesus is the answer,
He's right within for you.*

5/21/21 Given from Jesus and Mom to all her children.

Amen.
