

The Greatest Gift

The greatest gift God gives us,
Is not wrapped in silver and gold,
Has not a dollar value,
Not tangible to hold.

The greatest gift is Jesus,
His Presence there within,
He opens us to Oneness,
Lets living love pour in.

His ever-present patience,
Waits 'til we come around,
Says, " I will never leave you,"
With Him, true love is found.

God's gift that keeps on giving,
His meaning pure and true,
Jesus, the Gift, the Giver,
Bestows Himself on you.

Open to receive Him,
Such treasure there awaits,
Beneficence without measure,
Such kindness, He relates.

Once you've opened to Him,
And felt His love for you,
Such joy will be what fills your heart,
Each day you'll feel brand new!

A gift that stays unopened,
Cannot its giver give,
Open up to Me, dear,
I'll teach you how to live.

I'll teach you that you're much more,
Than you now think you are,
You are God's point of light there,
His Own, His Love, His Star.

In closing let me tell you,
I'm here within it's true,
Waiting for your opening,
I give Myself to you.
