

No Excuses Needed

You needn't find excuses,
For failures you've defined,
I will never blame you,
Your innocence, I find.

Let go the guilty burden,
So heavy on your back,
Let it go, my dear one,
Release ego's attack.

I see you not as sinful,
Corruption's not in sight,
You're not sin infested,
There is no heavy blight.

I see you with all innocence,
Perfect, whole, and free,
God's creation manifest,
With pure integrity.

Excuses are defenses,
Fear-based, they're ego's game,
Played to undermine you,
To stay in charge, their aim.

What really is this ego?
No real presence there,
A system of defenses,
Just puffed up with hot air.

As you join with Me, dear,
Reality you'll find,
The transcendent truth of you, dear,
Pure innocence defined.

You are God's point of light there,
And love is what you are,
You bring His Will to the world,
You are His shining star.

No excuses needed,
Just open up to Me,
Let's share God's love to all there,
Your sacred destiny.

In closing, let Me tell you,
Our Oneness you have shown,
Your innocence complete, dear,
You are not alone.
