

Stay the Course

The roadmap of your life, dear,
Should not be thrown away,
Discarded as a tissue,
Outmoded, had its day.

The course you chose, to join Me,
To live in Unity,
Was not a flight of fancy,
'Twas forever meant to be.

The ego flashes 'come here,'
Let's give this ride a spin,
Get off the 'Jesus bandwagon,'
You know he is a 'has been.'

Says life's a-passing by there,
Why give up solo flight?
Thrills are here a plenty,
Soar in your own delight.

The mind of separation, dear,
Has no foundation there,
It's made up of defenses,
Quite simply, just hot air.

It states its really you, there,
Then claims uncertainty,
Shrugs its shoulders, laughs it off,
Plays you, divisively.

It takes determination,
To stay the course, you see,
Forsaking all distractions,
Choosing life with Me.

Here you've found your truth, dear,
Your true identity,
Living from Transcendence,
With All, pure Unity.

As long as we're together,
Love will lead our way,
We'll follow where God leads us,
As One with Him each day.

*Joy is what we have, dear,
We live with certainty,
Stay the course forever,
Throughout eternity.*
