

Don't Jump

Don't jump to your conclusions,
For faulty they may be,
You may not know the whole of it,
Nor can you plainly see.

There's more than meets the eye, there,
Things you do not know,
The pictures always greater,
Than just the surface show.

Each one who is involved, dear,
Has a history,
Involved in life's unfolding,
Involved, dear one, with Me.

Father Mother God, our Source,
Moves mysteriously,
Living love, God's meaning,
Brings great harmony.

Stay open to what happens,
Expect surprise, delight,
Love, the Great Transformer,
Heals, makes clear your sight.

Hold all whom you're involved with,
As One with who you are,
God moves as One Whole Family,
Each One, His shining star.

I give you this conclusion,
You'll know with certainty,
I am with you always,
Alone you'll never be.

Love, it is the answer,
Allow it to come through,
Healing and redeeming,
Making you brand new!
