

Love will Point the Way

The words here so familiar,
The ones given out each day,
Are not here just to uplift,
But serve to point the way.

Point you to relationship,
So that you may know,
The One who loves you dearly,
Who wants for you to grow.

To grow in understanding,
Of your true identity,
A child of God, united,
You're perfect, whole, and free.

I bring these words of truth, dear,
Earnestly, I try,
Wanting your full awakening,
And love's the reason why.

Those on spirit side, dear,
And many here are we,
Are working to enlighten,
A world in pain, we see.

When you do wake up, dear,
And that's not far away,
Your zeal will help the effort,
And love will point the way.

Without each one's awareness,
Of who they are as One,
With Source and All That Is, dear,
Our work remains undone.

We see you as a worker,
A witness shining bright,
So turn within to Me, dear,
We'll follow love's clear light.

Each day will bring you closer,
Deep joy's already there,
Basking in the light, dear,
God's love is everywhere!

With great anticipation,
God's gifting is in store,
We move as One together,
Now and evermore!
